

Scott, we would, although I need to check our calendar ASAP. Let me ask: would it be appropriate for our 13 year old son?

Morning!

Would you and your wife like to see the HSPVA All School Musical, Urinetown? I can get tickets and a reserved parking place....I have connections. Thursday, Friday or Saturday at 7:00 pm. Tommy Tune Awards panel will be here Friday so that is a great night. Let me know.

Hope your day is good!

Thanks,

Scott

You're nice to say that. I've done little else for the last three days. Never imagined an easy thing would be so difficult. Having dinner with Kinders tomorrow night and hope to build confidence that Jolanda is worth ignoring. Still much to do.

Harvin,

In talking to the HSPVA Friends, I understand that you have been a positive support of the possible Kinder gift to HSPVA. Just wanted to say thank you!! I know your plate is full with all things HISD.

I appreciate you and your support.

Scott
